TURKEY: AR medal (23.95g), 1855/AH1271, NP-1098, Crimean (Krim) Campaign, with hole for wearing, VF-EF This is probably the most common Turkish campaign medal, as it was awarded to a great number of troops from England, France and Sardinia who participated in the Crimean War, but not to their allied Turkish troops. The medal was struck in three different languages: English, French and Italian (Sardinian issue). Because the majority of the recipients were British, supplies of English strikes ran out, and many British recipients were given French or Sardinian versions. The 36 mm. silver medal has the tughra of Abdulmejid on the obverse, with the date AH 1271, while the reverse has an image of cannons, cannonballs, and the flags of the allied nations, over the words "Crimea" (English), "La Crimee" (French) or "La Crimea" (Sardinian) and the date 1855.	$225

Altekar's work replaces this informationally & is more comprehensive, but this is still a good collection and the photo record is worth having even at reprint quality. The 1967 London reprint is better than later India reprints. $55 124690. 143068. Kampmann, Ursula, Numismatische Wörterbuch, Battenberg, 2012, softcover, 112 pages, Deutsch-Englisch and English-German Numismatic Dictionary. The author has a German-English dictionary specifically for numismatic technical terms which makes it so the layman and the professional can more easily communicate about the hobby. Standard German-English dictionaries are not as useful as this wonderful little book since in numismatics there are many technical terms, which are not found in a regular dictionary. Great to use when reading auction catalogs or websites in either language. $14
124654. Rapson, E.J., Catalog of the Coins of the Andhar Dynasty, the Western Ksatrapas, the Traikutaka Dynasty and the 'Bodhi' Dynasty, London, 1967 (reprint of the 1908 original), much superior to the Indian Reprint, 268 pages, 21 plates, hardcover, English text with many legends written out in local scripts. Still a very useful reference. $45
124708. Singhal, C.R., The Sultans of Gujarat, Prince of Wales Museum, Bombay, 1945, 154 pages, 11 plates, hardcover (this, the original printing). Standard, in-depth catalog, now superseded by Goron & Goenka. $35
124677. Mandel, Edgar J., Cast Coinage of Korea, Whitman Publishing Company, Racine, Wisconsin, 1972, 160 pages, high quality rubbings of coin images throughout, hardcover. The catalogue on cast cash coinage of Korea. Has multiple indices and guides for identification, explanation of the many characters, and line drawings of each coin. Essential for Korean coins. $35
124712. Smith, Ward D. & Brian Matravers, Chinese Banknotes, Shirjeh Publishers, Menlo Park, California, 1970, 225 pages, photos throughout, hardcover, English text with bank names in Chinese characters. An extensive alphabetical catalogue of Chinese banknotes with explanations of all the issuing entities, multiple appendices and indices. Most notes illustrated. Much more detailed than Pick. Best one-volume work on Chinese paper and still much referenced, signed by Ward Smith. $120
125993. Treadwell, Luke, Buyid Coinage: A Die Corpus (322-445 A.H.), Ashmolean Museum, Oxford, 2001, 247 pages, 172 plates, hardcover with dust jacket, English text with Arabic legends written out. An extremely thorough study of the Buwayhid/Buyid dynasty. He describes every known die variant of every mint of the dynasty, with full descriptions of the legends on the coins in the text and excellent plates at the back. There are indices of names and secondary names and titles, a good map of the geographic extent of the Buwayhids, and a genealogical tree. $75
