1417. BIAFRA: Republic, AR crown, 1969, KM-5, bust of Chukwuemeka Odumegwu Ojukwu, chief of staff during Biafra's brief independence 1967-1970 // palm tree at center, motto at the top and value at the bottom in the outer margin, PCGS graded AU58, RRR $5,000 - 7,000

Little is known about this seldom encountered commemorative, probably intended for two years of independence, and inscribed "independence and liberty". No specimen has appeared in any other auction outside of our auction to our knowledge.

It has been suggested that it was produced by an Italian operation known as Istituto Numismatico Europeo, but there is no evidence to confirm this assumption. Uncertain letters, perhaps N.C.R., beneath the trunk of the palm tree and letter C at base of palm may reflect mint and designer's initials. In any case, the style & arrangement are totally different from any of the other issues struck for Biafra during its ephemeral existence.

A similar coin sold in Stephen Album Rare Coins Auction 18, Lot 2185 for $13,000. One the rarest of modern crown coins.

To facilitate commerce for the revolutionaries, Newhall, an avid coin collector, took 11,600 dollar-sized silver coins and counterstamped them in the basement of the Chronicle building in San Francisco. Just 2,000 to 3,000 were put into commerce, and Newhall was stuck with the balance of the defaced coins.

1773. SIND: Prachandendra, 7th century, AR damma (0.62g), cf. ONS Journal #194, p.30., bust right,without crown // trident, Brahmi legend sri pracandendra around, VF, RR $100 - 150

1774. SIND: Yashaditya, 7th century, AR damma (0.71g), bold diademed bust right, 4 pellets above // trident, ruler's name in Brahmi script, finest calligraphy, VF $100 - 150

1775. CHACH BRANCH AT MULTAN: Sri Tapanasa, before 712, AR damma (0.71g), crowned bust right // three pellets, sri tapanasa around; the name means "of the sun", perhaps a reference to the Sun Temple of Multan; this piece is of the pre-Islamic style of the Multan mint, EF, RR $110 - 150

1776. SIND: LOT of 7 silver dammas (average 0.63g): Yashaditya series, 7th century (pre-Islamic period), crowned bust // trident (7 pcs); and crowned bust // fire altar (anonymous) (1 pc); mostly VF, some rather crudely struck, interesting group, from the recent find; retail value $350, lot of 7 pieces $160 - 220

1777. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Tamim b. Zayd al-'Utbi, ca. 728-730, AR damma (0.36g), NM, ND, A-O1493, obverse text Allah ahad Allah al-samad // reverse mâ amara bihi tamim bin zayd, with just mâ instead of the full word mimmâ; nice strike, VF, RRR $200 - 250

Two examples, same condition, sold in our Auction 30, Lots 2320 and 2321, for $1100 and $1000, respectively.
Tamim b. Zayd was the first Muslim governor to issue silver dammas in Sind. The full Umayyad dirham was struck about 14 years earlier at al-Daybul, the coastal city of Sind, dated only AH95 (Klat-377) and without the name of a governor.

Thanks to the extensive research by Alexander Fishman, we now know that the gubernatorial coinage of Sind were produced circa 728-760 and 800-850, citing the local governors in Sind.

1778. GOVERNORS OF SIND: al-Hakim b. 'Awana al-Kalbi, ca. 730-740, AR damma (0.47g), NM, ND, A-P1493, first half of the kalima // 3-line legend 'amara bihi / al-hakam / bin 'awana, same dies as Lot 2322 in our Auction 30; it is now estimated that about 10-15 pieces are known, EF, RRR $250 - 350

1783. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Sulayman b. Salim al-Kalbi, circa 745-747, AR damma (0.35g), NM, ND, A-S1493, obverse text la ilah / illa Allah,, all within square of dots // reverse amara bihi / sulayman bin / salim, , VF, RRR $140 - 160

1784. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Mansur (b. Jumhur al-Kalbi), ca. 748-751, AR damma (0.35g), NM, ND, A-R1493, obverse legend la ilah i- / -la Allah in tall letters // reverse bism Allah / mansur, VF, RRR $150 - 200

Attribution to Mansur b. Jumhur, who served in Sistan until AH751 or slightly later, and probably somewhat later in Sind, is tentative. He is cited, with his patronymic, on an undated Umayyad fals of the Zaranj mint in Sistan in this auction (lot #253).

1785. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Da'ud b. Yazid al-Muhallabi, ca. 800-820, AR damma (0.58g), NM, ND, A-1493, obverse Allah wali / da'ud / …., large star in reverse field above Allah, VF-EF $100 - 150

Dammas of Da'ud are almost always severely worn - this is the finest example I have seen.

1786. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Da'ud b. Yazid al-Muhallabi, ca. 800-820, AR damma (0.50g), NM, ND, A-1493, name in center // 2nd half of kalima, large star above Allah, Fine $80 - 100

1787. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Bishr (b. Da'ud al-Muhallabi), ca. 820-826, AR damma (0.51g), NM, ND, A-1493C, citing the Abbasid caliph on the reverse, bism Allah / al-khalifa / al-ma'mun, obverse as type #1493B, unpublished (to be type CS12 in Fishman's upcoming catalog), pleasing F-VF $200 - 250

1788. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Bishr (b. Da'ud al-Muhallabi), ca. 820-826, AR damma (0.42g), NM, ND, A-1493B, without any reference to the caliph al-Ma'mun, clear name on the obverse, heavily worn reverse, Very Good, RRR $100 - 150

It is possible that the two types with and without the name of al-Ma'mun were struck at different mints, as they are calligraphically distinctive.

1789. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Hajjib b. Salih, ca. 826-828, AR damma (0.49g), NM, ND, A-1493D, obverse legend in 4 lines: hajjib / bin salih / al-ma'mu- / -n, of which most is visible on this piece; the reverse has just muhammad / rasul / Allah, some porosity, VF, RRR $150 - 200

1790. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Yahya, ca. 830±, AR damma (0.58g), NM, ND, A-V1493, al-khalifa / lillah al-amr / al-ma'mun with the middle line the start of Qur'an verse 30:3-4 // continuation of the verse & the governor's name, min qabl / wa min ba'd / yahya, with the name Yahya clear below the reverse field, VF, RRR $200 - 300

1791. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Yahya, ca. 830±, AR damma (0.56g), NM, ND, A-V1493, al-khalifa / lillah al-amr / al-ma'mun with the middle line the start of Qur'an verse 30:3-4 // continuation of the verse & the governor's name, min qabl / wa min ba'd / yahya, some light adhesions, VF, RRR $100 - 150

See lot #1790 for the clear name Yahya (off flan on this specimen), possibly a son or other relative of Musa al-Barmaki.

1792. GOVERNORS OF SIND: al-Barmaki, ca. 833-842, AR damma (0.43g), NM, ND, A-Y1493var, obverse la ilah illa / Allah wahdahu / la sharik lahu / al-mu'tasim billah, and reverse (uncertain name) / muhammad / rasul / Allah / barmaki, VF, RRR $150 - 200

The caliph's name confirms the dating to ca. 833-842.

1793. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Musa al-Barmaki, ca. 831-836, AR damma (0.47g), NM, ND, A-W1493, obverse la ilah illa Allah / al-malik al-haqq / muhammad rasul Allah, and reverse al-imam / abi ishaq / amir al-mu'minin / barmaki, relatively fine calligraphy, EF, RRR $300 - 400

As Imam, Abi Ishaq must refer to the caliph al-Mu'tasim, who ruled 833-842. (see also lots 1794 and 1795).

1794. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Musa al-Barmaki, ca. 831-836, AR damma (0.44g), NM, ND, A-W1493, obverse la ilah illa Allah / al-malik al-haqq / muhammad rasul Allah, and reverse al-imam / abi ishaq / amir al-mu'minin / barmaki, relatively fine calligraphy, choice VF, RRR $200 - 300

1795. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Musa al-Barmaki, ca. 831-836, AR damma (0.49g), NM, ND, A-W1493, obverse la ilah illa Allah / al-malik al-haqq / muhammad rasul Allah, and reverse al-imam / abi ishaq / amir al-mu'minin / barmaki, relatively fine calligraphy, Very Good, RRR $100 - 150

1796. GOVERNORS OF SIND: al-Marhal? al-Barmaki, ca. 830s, AR damma (0.43g), NM, ND, A-Y1493, obverse Allah ahad / mimma amara bihi / al-marhal (?), reverse: muhammad / rasul / Allah / barmaki, with small ornament above, EF, RRR $200 - 300

The name below the obverse resembles "al-marhal", but that is just a wild guess, and the calligraphy is primative (see also lots 1797 and 1798).

1799. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Jâbir b. al-Ash'ath, early 9th century, AE fals (1.93g), NM, ND, A—, obverse legend mimma amara / bihi al-amir jabir / bin al-ash'ath, reverse just muhammad / rasul / Allah, with minor symbols below, some porosity, mainly on the reverse, F-VF, RRR $150 - 250

Jâbir was likely related to Muhammad b. al-Ash'ath, who was govenor in Sistan circa 812-815, and may have fled eastward around the end of that time. We have found no direct reference to Jâbir, but the style of this fals is coherent with this period. The only example previously known sold in our Auction 31, Lot 2219, assigned to Muhammad, but now that the full name is clear, it is Jâbir, not Muhammad. (see also lot 1800).

1801. GOVERNORS OF SIND: Yazid b. 'Umar, AR damma (0.45g), NM, A-F1494, obverse al-izza / lillah, reverse yazid (bin) / 'umar, thick narrow flan, VF, RRR $200 - 300

The stylistic similiarity between this type and the dammas of 'Amr b. Muhammad (ca. AH116-126) suggests that the issuer might have been Yazid b. 'Umar al-Fazari, who had served as governor of Iraq circa 127, but I have found no evidence that he might been assigned to Sind either before or after his service in Iraq. The only other recorded example sold at Morton & Eden Auction 92, Lot 179, for $307.

1802. HABBARIDS OF SIND: ʻUmar, ca. 854-874, AR damma (0.52g), NM, AH24x, A-1498, standard kalima, divided between obverse & reverse, with the date around the obverse, … arba'in wa mi'tayn, F-VF, RRR $100 - 150

ʻUmar I (b. ʻAbd al-ʻAziz al-Habbari) was the founder of the Habbadid dynasty, in effect, declaring his independence from the Abbasid caliphate during the reign of the caliph al-Mutawakkil (847-861). A similar piece in our Auction 31, Lot 2222, showed the date as (2)41 (different dies).

1804. HABBARIDS OF SIND: Khatam, late 9th century, AR damma (0.40g), NM, ND, A-C1500, Khatam's name in middle line of the obverse, citing the principal Habbarid ruler ʻUmar I below the reverse, harshly cleaned on the reverse, Fine, R $70 - 90

1805. HABBARIDS OF SIND: ʻUmar II, fl. 912-913, AR damma (0.50g), A-1495M, citing an uncertain governor on the reverse, perhaps al-hasan or al-husayn, Fine, RR $100 - 120

1807. HABBARIDS OF SIND: ʻAbd Allah II/III, after 900, AR damma (0.56g), NM, ND, A-1502D, finest calligraphy, name abbreviated as just 'abd ("slave"), VF-EF, RR $150 - 200

1808. HABBARIDS OF SIND: Ahmad, ca. 1010-1040, AR damma (0.33g), ND, A-1502var, obverse without text, floral design only // standard reverse of Ahmad, with traces of his name at the bottom, VF, RR $90 - 110

1809. HABBARIDS OF SIND: Ahmad, ca. 1010-1040, AR damma (0.71g), ND, A-1502var, early issue, possibly struck under the authority of a different Ahmad, or struck for this ruler at another mint location, decent Fine, RR $90 - 110

1810. HABBARIDS OF SIND: al-Muzaffar, ca. 1040s-1050s, AR damma (0.38g), NM, ND, A-1502H, style and calligraphy identical to the common type A-1502 in the name of Ahmad, but with the name al-Muzaffar instead of Ahmad, EF, RRR $150 - 200

1811. HABBARIDS OF SIND: al-Mansur, ca. 1040s-1050s, AR damma (0.43g), NM, ND, A-1502I, style and calligraphy identical to the common type A-1502 in the name of Ahmad, but with the name al-mansur instead of Ahmad, fancy floral ornament above the obverse field, VF-EF, RRR $120 - 150

1812. HABBARIDS OF SIND: uncertain ruler, early 11th century, AR damma (0.33g), NM, A-1506N, very stylized calligraphy, comparable to the late versions of Ahmad (A-1502), but the reverse is arranged around a triangle, with possible reference to the caliph al-Qa'im (AH421-467), minor adhesion, VF-EF $100 - 120

1813. AMIRS OF MULTAN: Munabbih, fl. 312, AR damma (0.47g), NM, ND, A-1503, Nagari sri adi / varaha (the boar incarnation of Vishnu) // lillah munabbih below the three large pellets, VF, R $100 - 150

Rare type, with "lillah" and his full name appropriately separated.

Assigned by Fishman to a Muhammad IV (ca. 920s) of the Banu Munabbih.

1815. AMIRS OF MULTAN: Muhammad, undated, AR damma (0.56g), NM, ND, A-1505.2, Arabic Allah wali / muhammad … / yansaruhu (or something similar) // just the name Muhammad beneath the three large pellets of Multan coinage, F-VF, RR $100 - 120

Liddle noted the exist of year AH987 for the gold square mohur of Urdu Zafar Qarin, though it is extremely rare, with none posted on Zeno, and none on CoinArchives. The normal date for this type is "alf" (1000), a type actually introduced in AH990 and presumably continuously struck throughout the following decade. See the discussion on Zeno-95421 for this analysis.

This piece is an original mohur of Akbar, not one the many replicas that were produced as "good-luck" bullion pieces over the next three centuries, usually dated "alf" for "1000".

The Persian couplet, engraved in the most elegant Persian calligraphy, is divided between obverse & reverse, which was translated by Stanley Lane-Poole as "Destiny has drawn on money of gold / The portrait of his Majesty Sháh Jahángír / The letters of Jahángír and Alláhu Akbar / Are equal in value from the beginning of time". An Unpublished and Possibly Unique Nazarana Rupee

1893. MUGHAL: Muhammad Shah, 1719-1748, AR nazarana rupee (11.61g), Murshidabad, AH1147 year 17, KM-436.46var, standard Mughal inscriptions, from finely engraved dies on a broad flan, unpublished and probably unique, EF-AU, RRRR $3,000 - 5,000

In 1704 (AH1116), the quasi-independent Mughal governor of Bengal, Murshid Quli Khan, moved his capital from Dacca (Dhaka) to Makhsusabad, changing its name to Murshidabad in honor of himself. He acquired the title of Nawab of Bengal in 1717, which he held until his death in 1727, succeeded by Shuja-ud-Din Muhammad Shah, who remained the Nawab until his death in 1739.

This coin is clearly a carefully engraved presentation rupee on a broad flan, struck from special dies of greater calligraphic elegance than the ordinary rupees of the same mint & period (e.g., the rupee of the same date & regnal year illustrated in the KM catalog). The Hijri year 1147 extended from June 1734 to late May 1735, but I have not found a specific reason for the issuance of this exquisite rupee. It is possible that some event occurred between Shuja-ud-Din at Murshidabad and the East India Company in Calcutta, perhaps a token of honor presented to the British in exchange for an end to previous conflicts.

Mintage at Murshidabad commenced about AH1115 as Makhsusabad, changed to Murshidabad in 1116, remained the capital of the Nawabs of Bengal until ceded to the British in 1174 (1761 AD).

1894. MUGHAL: Muhammad Shah, 1719-1748, nazarana AR rupee (10.29g), Shahjahanabad, AH1136 year 5, KM-437.4, 1 testmark, VF $200 - 250

1899. MUGHAL: Alamgir II, 1754-1759, AR rupee (11.54g), Murshidabad, year 4, KM-460.15, struck at Murshidabad then under the control of the Nawab of Bengal, even though the Nawab lost authority over Calcutta to the East India Company during this year; EIC influence was likely already of some consequence at Murshidabad, bold VF-EF $100 - 150

1900. MUGHAL: Alamgir II, 1754-1759, AR rupee (11.45g), Murshidabad, year 6, KM-460.15, last Mughal issue at Murshidabad, which was acquired by the East India Company about one year after the death of Alamgir II in November 1759 (Jamada II AH1173), VF, R $100 - 150

This type is known with the Hijri year 1173, struck either before or after the death of Alamgir II in the 6th month of that year. An exceedingly rare issue dated AH1174 and of the finest engraving style, has been confirmed as the first British issue actually struck at Murshidabad (Stevens-1.18), and the only known specimen was struck from dies different from those used for this piece on both sides. Nonetheless, as the EIC took over Bengal in 1757, two years before the death of Alamgir II, the ongoing coinage at the Murshidabad mint from 1757 to 1760 may have come under some degree of British influence.

1901. MUGHAL: Alamgir II, 1754-1759, LOT of 24 rupees: Lahore: AH1167/one, 1168/one (3 pcs), 1169/2 (4 pcs), —/2, 1169/3, —/3, 1172/5 (4 pcs), —/5, and 1172/6 (2 pcs), all without any testmarks; Bareli: year 5 (2 banker's marks); Muradabad: year 3; and Shahjahanabad: year one, year 2, and year 4 (lamination defect); almost all in the choice VF-EF range; retail value $885, lot of 24 piecees, ex Ajit Singh Collection $450 - 600

According to a specialist in the coinage of Jaipur, "They are broad flan rupees made out right after the princely state's merger into Rajasthan. Ken Wiggins had a couple in his collection and Mr. Edward Baldwin qualified them as Genuine Nazarana rupees. But here is the problem. A nazarana rupee has to have the complete die impression as it is presented to the Maharaja. Therefore, this coin as well as the one in my collection cannot be qualified as Nazarana rupees". These should be regarded as broad flan rupees struck for special gifts very soon after the merger into Rajasthan, which occurred in March 1949.

1978. NABHA: Bhagwan Singh, 1863-1871, AR gobinshahi rupee (11.02g), Nabha, VS1928, Cr—. Herrli—. SS—, in the name of Guru Gobind Shah, nazarana style, EF-AU, RRRR $500 - 700

*This is the first coin that can be securely assigned to Bhagwan Singh, whose coins have never been confirmed. The earlier ruler Jaswant Singh (1783-1840), and the next 3 rulers, Devindar Singh (1840-46), Bharpur Singh (1846-63), and Bhagwan Singh (1863-71), were all descended from Jaswant. The leaf symbol (*aka pipal leaf) was first applied by Jaswant, continued by Devindar and Bharpur, so it would seem logical that Bhagwan Singh would have retained that symbol. He died of tuberculosis on 31 May 1871, which would have been early in VS1928, so that dies for VS1928 were likely produced before Bhagwan's death. Since this coin retains the leaf symbol, it should be an issue of Bhagwan Singh, not his successor Hira Singh later that year. Moreover, Bhagwar died with no heirs, but during his reign he had adopted Hira Singh, not a descendant of Jaswant, whence it seems logical that he would have adopted a new reign symbol, the katar, as the distinguishing feature of his coinage.
As for the Nabha mint, its production was probably quite small, and it would have been economically logical to continue to use the dated gobindshahi obverse dies until they failed. The date appears on the obverse, and the obverse die of this piece was retained for Hira Singh, confirmed by his VS1928 rupee using the same obverse die, but a new reverse die with the katar symbol, that appeared in our Auction 19, Lot 1458 (type Y-2).

1979. NAWANAGAR: Vibhaji, 1852-1894, AV kori, ND, KM-12, late style, with border of dots around both obverse & reverse, with the actual design derived from a 16th century coin of the Gujarat Sultanate, copied at Nawanagar for over 300 years! NGC graded MS63, R $1,000 - 1,500

Sikh Empire

1990. SIKH EMPIRE: AR rupee (11.31g), Lahore, AH1110 year 42, KM-300.53 (Mughal), in the name of Aurangzeb, standard Mughal design but with the khanda symbol of the Sikhs within the S of ma'nus, 1 testmark, several banker's marks on the edge, VF, RR $140 - 180

This type, bearing the Sikh symbol, was likely struck by supporters of the Sikhs inside the city of Lahore, for unknown arrangements with the official mint in that city, either legally or unofficially. (See also lots 1991 and 1992 below).

1991. SIKH EMPIRE: AR rupee (11.29g), Lahore, AH1110 year 43, KM-300.53 (Mughal), in the name of Aurangzeb, standard Mughal design but with the khanda symbol of the Sikhs within the S of ma'nus, 6 testmarks, several banker's marks on the edge, VF, RR $120 - 160

1992. SIKH EMPIRE: AR rupee (11.35g), Lahore, AH1110 year 42, KM-300.53 (Mughal), in the name of Aurangzeb, standard Mughal design but with the khanda symbol of the Sikhs within the S of ma'nus, 4 testmarks, 3 banker's marks on the edge, VF, RR $120 - 160

1993. SIKH EMPIRE: AR heavy rupee (11.35g), Lahore, AH1122 year 5, KM-349.3 (Mughal), in the name of Shah Alam I, standard Mughal design but with the khanda symbol of the Sikhs within the obverse center, 2 small test nicks, some discoloration, choice VF, RR $300 - 400

This type, bearing the Sikh symbol, was likely struck by supporters of the Sikhs inside the city of Lahore, for unknown arrangements. By this year (=1710/11), the Sikhs had conquered most of eastern Punjab but not the city of Lahore, which would remain under Mughal authority until 1765. However, it seems reasonable that the Mughal officials at the Lahore mint may have authorized to insert the khanda symbol for unrecorded political reasons. It is also recorded on standard weight rupees dated AH1122 year 4 (published in ONS Newsletter #144).

The tokens were mostly struck in copper or brass in denominations of farthings and half pennies. Commonly they were round, but octagonal, square and heart shaped flans were also used. They offer a fascinating insight into life and trade, personal circumstances and local history in the third quarter of the seventeenth century. The catalog lists about 14,000 different tokens, based on the numbering system used in G.C. Williamson's classic work Trade Tokens Issued in the Seventeenth Century. (two volumes, 1889, 1891). Many tokens have come to light since that date and new entries have been inserted in the appropriate places using numbers with suffix letters. In places, over twenty percent of the tokens listed are 'new'.
