A Fabulous Collection of Brunei

916. BRUNEI: Anonymous, ca. 10th century, AV 4 masa (= 80 ratti) (9.90g), globular ingot with a single punch bearing a crescent and point, EF, RRR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $1,300 - 1,500

The 4 masa (16 kupang) denomination is by far the rarest of the series.

917. BRUNEI: Anonymous, ca. 10th century, AV masa (= 4 kupang = 20 ratti) (2.46g), globular ingot with a single punch bearing a crescent and point, EF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $500 - 700

918. BRUNEI: Anonymous, ca. 10th century, AV ½ masa (= 2 kupang = 10 ratti) (1.16g), globular ingot with a single punch bearing a crescent and point, EF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $300 - 400

919. BRUNEI: Anonymous, ca. 10th century, AV kupang (= 5 ratti) (0.68g), globular ingot with a single punch bearing a crescent and point, EF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $180 - 220

Regarding lots 916 to 919 above, ilt has been suggested that the "crescent and point" type were found throughout the region, including Java, Sumatra, and northern Borneo, perhaps even in the Philippines.

920. BRUNEI: Anonymous, ca. 10th-12th century, AR masa (2.21g), Millies-14/24, Brahmi character, VF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $180 - 220

The character has been tentatively read by Millies as "Sri", but he also suggested several alternatives (pp. 15-17). All pieces seem to have the same character, often carelessly engraved.

921. BRUNEI: Sultan Kamaluddin, 1710-1730, octagonal tin pitis (4.08g), SS-3E, stylized cat facing right // Arabic inscription (only partly legible on this piece), sultan kamal al-din malik al-zahir, central squarish hole (as made), decent obvese, much corrosion on reverse, F-VF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $100 - 120

922. BRUNEI: Anonymous, 18th century, tin pitis (3.66g), SS-6, stylized camel facing right // Arabic sultan malik al-zahir, some oxidation, VF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $180 - 220

Stylistically identical to the tin pitis in the name of Muhammad Alauddin, perhaps struck right after his demise in 1737. See also lot 923 below.

923. BRUNEI: Anonymous, 18th century, tin pitis (4.25g), SS-6, camel facing right // Arabic sultan malik al-zahir, minor porosity in one area of the reverse, VF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $140 - 180

924. BRUNEI: Anonymous, 18th-19th century, tin pitis (3.87g), SS-7A, tiger facing left // Arabic al-muzâhir … fi bilâd al-biruni ("the master of … in the land of Brunei") arranged around a cross, beautifully cast, superb EF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $250 - 350

The text was read as "sultan al-'adil malik al-zahir," which is obviously incorrect on this fascinating and very rare piece. The uncertain Arabic word resembles "rûm", but that seems unlikely. See also lots 925 to 928 in this sale.

925. BRUNEI: Anonymous, 18th-19th century, tin pitis (3.78g), SS-7A, tiger facing left // Arabic al-muzâhir … fi bilâd al-biruni ("the master of … in the land of Brunei") arranged around a cross, attractive EF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $200 - 300

926. BRUNEI: Anonymous, 18th-19th century, tin pitis (2.2g), SS-7A, tiger facing left // Arabic al-muzâhir … fi bilâd al-biruni ("the master of … in the land of Brunei") arranged around a cross, weakly cast, as the casting molds were loosely applied, EF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $100 - 120

927. BRUNEI: Anonymous, 18th-19th century, tin pitis (3.67g), SS-7A, tiger facing left // Arabic al-muzâhir … fi bilâd al-biruni ("the master of … in the land of Brunei") arranged around a cross, well produced but with some porosity, VF-EF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $140 - 180

930. BRUNEI: Anonymous, 18th-19th century, tin pitis (3.52g), SS-13A, camel facing left, resting beneath the clouds // Arabic honorific title al-sultan al-'adil malik al-zahir within ornate dodekafoil with central flower, almost no wear, but one serious corrosion spot towards the rim, VF-EF, RR, ex Howard Simmons Collection $100 - 140

Circular flan was soon abandoned, and to distinguish it better from then circulated 1/10th riyál and 1/4 riyál, the pentagonal flan was choosed. In AH1368 there was another short-lived attempt to distinguish 1/8th from 1/16th (riyál) ahmadí by introducing hexagonal flan."
