Show Schedule: Not much to say right now. If I can work it out together with family requirements I'll attend ANA in New York, 31 July to 2 August, but I will not be able to finalize my decision until shortly before. Otherwise, no shows until September (to be announced later).

COMMENTARY (May 23th 2002) — This list has been delayed due to my preoccupation with family matters (Steve's). I had to move my mom into a nursing home, set up her financing, rearrange the lease on a retail property she owns, and sell off two other properties, or which one still remains to be sold. With these matters now well arranged I've been able to return fulltime to the coin trade, and no longer need to have Joe do everything himself.
