990. Mitchiner, Michael, The Coinage and History of Southern India: Part I, London, 1998, 280 pages, 22 maps, over 1200 coins catalogued and illustrated with valuations. This is the first part of a two part study of the coinage and history of Southern India and focuses on the history and coinages that circulated in the modern states of Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh. Throughout much of the historical period the river Krishna has been a natural boundary, and this is taken as the general northern limit of the study although a few coins from further afield are considered, $115
991. Mitchiner, Michael, The Coinage and History of Southern India: Part II, London, 1998, 282 pages, over 1,200 coins catalogued and illustrated with valuations. This is the second part of a two part study. This part provides a historical survey of the region of the states of Tamilnadu and Kerala and of the coinage that circulated there. A major focus of this study concerns the circulation of local and imported coins during the ancient period. This provides a necessary foundation for establishing the numismatic history of India's far south, $115
992. Mitchiner, Michael, Indian Tokens: Popular Religious & Secular Art from the Ancient Period to the Present Day, London, 1998, 240 pages, 1,080 pieces catalogued and illustrated with valuations. A major feature of this study is the evolution of popular religious and secular art through the past two millennia. Many facets of popular religious expression illustrated on tokens find no parallels in such better known media as coins, sculptures and statues. The various classes of tokens considered here provide one of the richest media illustrating popular iconography and the evolution of religious concepts. A good start at cataloging Indian tokens., $115
993. Mitchiner, Michael, The Land of Water - Coinage and History of Bangladesh and Later Arakan, circa 300 BC to the Present Day, London, 2000, 160 pages, illustrated throughout with valuations. A major emphasis tended to be given to the Islamic period in earlier studies, partly because the history and coinage of this period can be most readily documented. There remains much which has not been adequately discussed and one of the author's aims in the present study has been to address especially those areas in which there remains ample scope for debate, $115
994. Mitchiner, Michael, Oriental Coins and their Values: Ancient & Classical World 600BC-600AD, London, 1977, hc, 760 pages, the entire ancient world, except Europe, in one volume: Origins of Western coinage, ancient Middle eastern series, Indo-Greek, Kushan, punchmark series, Tribal & later Indian, and pre-T'ang era China. Extensive historical & numismatic background on all series. Detailed listings with weights, transcription & translation of all legends, convenient format with listings & photo plates side by side. Mitchiner numbering system is widely used and that makes this an important reference. Later works expand upon and reattribute certain series: Southern India Part 1 & 2, and Southeast Asia, out of print, $375
995. Mitchiner, Michael, Oriental Coins and their Values: Non-Islamic States & Western Colonies AD 600-1979, London, 1979, 640 pages with 4785 coins illustrated, includes: 1) India from the fall of the Guptas through rise of Islam, 2) Colonial & modern India & Ceylon, 3) Nepal, Assam, Tripura, Arakan, Burma, Thailand, Cambodia, Malay peninsula & Indonesia 600 AD to present, 4) (less useful) China, Japan, Annam & Korea from T'ang era China to present. Dynastic tables, historical background. Rendering in original script with translation for most coins. The India section alone is worth the price. Important listings of S.E. Asian odd & curious items. Mitchiner numbering system is widely used and that makes this an important reference. Especially important work for the Indian coins, list £125, $225
996. Mitchiner, Michael, Oriental Coins and their Values: The World of Islam, London, 1977, hc, 511 pages, 4001 coins illustrated, an in depth survey of Islamic coins from Spain through India to Indonesia with weights, transcription and translation of legends, a widely-used numbering system, convenient side-by-side catalogue and plates, values. Historical background and useful dynastic lists for each series. Extensive mint listing. Still an essential work for anyone interested in Islamic coins, list £125, $225

COMMENTARY: Steve mentioned in the last commentary that we will have a new website, www.stevealbum.com, by the time you received list 202 and that is technically correct. We hope to have actual coins on the site from list 203 by the time you receive this list, including color photos of better items. Unfortunately, as with building any new system, we have encountered more bugs that we expected although the new computer system will eventually save us time. One nice benefit that is now functioning is that we can create 'custom' lists for you of coins that we have now entered into the system. Say that you want a listing of all the Ilkhan, Umayyad, Mughal or gold coins we have in stock. Now, with the pressing of a few keys on the computer, we can create a custom list of particular coins for you. Something that would take us half a day before, just takes a few minutes now.

Steve has been offered a great opportunity this coming April, which he has jumped on. That is, three weeks in China (his first trip there) including much time in Sinkiang province. He will spend time at the Shanghai museum and the museum in Ürümqi, Sinkiang where he will offer his help where needed. He will also have time for a much needed vacation to explore an area of China that most of us never have the opportunity to visit. Joe
