COMMENTARY: It seems that Safa Giray Khan had a grudge with me, blasting the last two paragraphs of my previous list #209 with the image of his own coin, so I have reprinted them below, perhaps a useful exercise, given that I feel too busy today to write much of a new column here.

Winter is here now, with heavy frost here in Santa Rosa the past several days. This will undoubtedly give us more time to devote to our business. Joe spent the weekend at Point Reyes, working as a volunteer with the National Park Service, and tolerating the freezing weather. Northern California can be cold.

HELP: Please mention your invoice number when making a payment, as this helps us tremendously when in making sure your payment is posted correctly. Also, if you would like to charge your credit card, please mention this when placing your order as we will not charge your card without your express permission. Also, please mention invoice number when returning coins.

THANKS: Terms of payment are 15 days after receipt of invoice, which is noted on the invoice as "Terms: Standard". Although most pay promptly, we are disappointed that some are unnecessarily slow sending their payments. Payment after receipt is a privilege, and we would appreciate that everyone would honor that privilege.
