Please note that color photos of many of the coins on this price list not photographed can be found on our website;
www.stevealbum.com

Commentary: Just a reminder, our policy is not to charge your credit card until we have your verbal or written authorization for each transaction. If you place multiple orders by phone or email, they will be considered separate orders, just as homedepot.com, amazon.com, eBay etc. However, if you tell us that you are still looking through the list and may order some more items, we can easily prepare a temporary invoice and not have to charge you twice for shipping costs! That's a win-win for both buyer & seller. Secondly, please don't send the same email to more than one address here as this causes us to duplicate our work. Thirdly, please now allow up to 10 days for delivery on orders from active lists or customized lists. We are usually overwhelmed with emails after a new list is mailed so an email response may take up to a week --- your patience is greatly appreciated!

It seems that in modern times, every new possibility bears a positive side and a negative, and this is certainly true for our ability to create customized lists of coins on offer. The positive is that the buyer receives an up-to-date listing and we sell more items more quickly. The negative is that the buyer requests images and the seller has to find the items allegedly still in active inventory. As for pictures, we simply do not have the time to take scans or photos of less expensive coins. We can send these coins to you but we do request an advance payment, with full refund for returned items that you find unsatisfactory. Eventually, in the near future, we hope to upload items onto our website directly and minimize or avoid the non-photographed monthly lists. We would appreciate any comments on this.

Steve was very successful in his buying trip to London and Joe had the most successful Chicago show to date. So it seems we will continue to set up at the Chicago show. Look for our next photo list in mid-June, it will contain a great many new items from buying trips, shows and the numerous collections we have had the good luck to purchase over the past couple of months.
