They came in two large lots - one in the 1980's and another in the 1990's - but barring these instances they are still rare. This type is most likely an issue of the Sabalgarh mint under Jean-Baptiste Filose. Jean Baptiste Filose was a military commander in the army of Daulat Rao Sindhia, the Maratha ruler of Gwalior. In 1811 he captured the fortress of Chanderi on the eastern border of Sindhia's kingdom from the Bundela Rajput rulers. He led Sindhia's forces against British during the Third Anglo-Maratha War (1817-1818), and captured the fortress of Garha Kota near Sagor in 1817. (See also items 94147-94157 below)
